

ANNA LAUDEL

Hanefi Yeter

Hanefi Yeter was born in Bayburt in 1947. He started his education in the class of Bedri Rahmi Eyübođlu, who also tutored him in his own artist studio at the State Academy of Fine Arts (Istanbul) in 1967. In 1970, he was granted a place to study in Paris at the "Academie des Beaux-Arts", however he was unable to finish his degree at the institution due to personal reasons. He returned to Istanbul where he completed his education at the State Academy of Fine Arts and received his degree in 1972. In 1973 he passed the State Scholarship Examination and moved to Berlin for his postgraduate education, which he completed at the Fine Arts Academy (Universität der Künste) in 1978.

Hanefi Yeter's work has been shown in over 90 solo exhibitions. Additionally, he participated in numerous group exhibitions in Turkey and abroad in Vienna, Paris, Brussels, Manchester and numerous cities in Germany. He was the first Turkish-born who presented his work in East Germany (DDR) in a solo show. The catalogue for this exhibition was only published after a special permission was issued by the Soviet government. His art pieces are both on display and in the collections of in national and international museums and collections. He produced five murals, two facades incorporating ceramic, two mosaic panels and one sculpture work in Berlin. Three of his murals can be found in Darmstadt. Between the years of 2006 to 2012 almost one hundred of his sculptures as well as his relief artworks where on display in various shopping malls throughout Turkey, for instance the Forum Mersin, Aydin, Denizli, Trabzon, Ankara, Bursa, Istanbul, Antalya, Tarsus, Diyarbakir and Nevşehir. Currently Yeter works and lives in Istanbul and Bodrum.
